

Introduction to World Politics

The Genuine Quiz on Eastern Europe

Ole J. Forsberg, Ph.D.

Creighton University

The map is on the back. Below are things that happened in several of our states. In the blanks, fill in the name of the state. On the map, label those states. As usual, there may be overlap.

Name and label these states

1. _____ The four victorious powers of World War II divided both Germany and this state. The two sides in the Cold War further divided Germany into East and West. The powers that were granted this state its unfettered freedom once it declared permanent neutrality in its constitution. Its capital, during the Cold War, was the site of much spy activity.

2. _____ At the close of the Cold War, this state broke apart along its ethnic lines. As of 2008, seven states exist where one was originally. There is but one separation remaining: Vojvodina from this state, all that remains of Yugoslavia. When will Vojvodina separate? Well, since this state lost both Montenegro and Kosovo within the last two years, we may see an independent Vojvodina in less than a decade.

3. _____ After a Greek-led coup d'état on this state, Turkey invaded to protect the Turks there. The state remains divided into two sections: one essentially led by Turkey and the other essentially led by Greece.

Label these states

In addition to the states above, label these states (which may include repeats).

EST Estonia

GRG Georgia

MAC Macedonia

The Map

Labeled states

A: _____

C: _____

B: _____

D: _____

Extra Credit

XC: _____ The capital of this state is Minsk. The government has tried three times since the end of the Cold War to rejoin with Russia. This state has yet to undergo a 'revolution' of any color, as the people appear to tolerate the return of totalitarianism. Name and label the state (as XC) on the map above.